

How can you not know?

...that which is known about God is evident within them; for God made it evident to them.

(Rom. 1:19)

Words and music by V. Perebikovskiy

Soprano
Alto

1.If I would not have known what is a - wai - ting our pla - net, If I'd not un - der -
2.I'd be a slave to sin, bound by the cruel chains of dark - ness; Quest'-ning what is a - 3.God casts our sin - ful past in - to the deep - est of o - ceans. Come un - to Him at

Tenor
Bass

6

S.
A.

stood, this world has turned from the true Light. I would take o - ther paths____ head, mak - ing me fear - ful and an - xious; Try - ing to live my life,____ last; bring Him your heart's full de - vo - tion. Trust Je - sus' sac - ri - fice;____

T.
B.

I would take o - ther, o - ther paths
Try - ing to live my life, my life
Trust Je - sus, trust His sac - ri - fice

11

S.
A.

tow'rd earth ly plea - sures and rich - es, If I had not known Christ, known Christ, in my in - a - de - quate po - wer, If I had not known truth, known truth, - live thro' His great re - sur - rec - tion. Have you not heard of Christ, of Christ?

T.
B.

15

Refrain

S.
A.

and wan - dered in the dark - ness. Oh, how can you not know, How can you call it a this world is God's, not ours.____
He is your true sal - va - tion.

T.
B.

20

S. A.

myst'-ry, That God has made the world? Has it appeared just by chance here? Writ-ten as in a book, a book, Clear - ly it's seen thro' the pa - ges -

T. B.

26

S. A.

T. B.

29

S. A.

Wit - ness the hand of God, our God, Faith - ful thro' all the a - ges.

T. B.